Date:- 08-05-2023.

NOTIFICATION

The Administrator of Union Territory of Lakshadweep, in compliance of the proceedings dated.20-10-1999 of the National Human Commission, New Delhi and Commissions letter No.233/20/97-98 dated.26-9-2003, is pleased to constitute a Sentence Review Board for the Union Territory of Lakshadweep Administration for the review of sentence awarded to prisoners convicted by the courts of competent Jurisdiction in Lakshadweep and for recommending their premature release in appropriate cases, as given below.

1. Composition of Sentence Review Board

- |   |            |
|---|------------|
| 1) Secretary (Home)                     | - Chairman |
| 2) District & Sessions Judge, Kavaratti | - Member   |
| 3) Secretary (Legal)                    | - Member   |
| 4) Collector cum IG Prison              | - Member   |
| 5) Superintendent of Police (HQ)        | - Member   |

2. Quorum

The recommendation of the Sentence Review Board shall not be invalid merely by reason of any vacancy in the Board or the inability of any Member to attend the Board meeting. The meeting of the Board shall not however, be, held if the quorum is less than 4 Members including the chairman.

3. Periodicity of the Board Meeting

The Sentence Review Board shall meet at least once in three months at Kavaratti Island on a date to be notified to its members at least 10 days in advance with the complete agenda for the proposed meeting. However, it shall be open to the Chairman of the Sentence Review Board to convene a meeting of the Board more frequently as may be deemed necessary.

4. Eligibility for Premature Release

4.1 Subject to the provision of the Section 433-A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and Notification No.U-11011/2/74-UTL (I) dated 20-03-1974 of the Govt. of India, Ministry of Home Affairs, the following categories of convicts, prisoners shall be eligible to be considered for premature release by the board.

4.2 Every convicted prisoner whether male or female undergoing sentence of life imprisonment and covered by the provisions of Section 433A Cr.PC shall be eligible to be considered for premature release from the prison immediately after serving out the sentence of 14 years of actual imprisonment i.e. without the remissions. It is, however, clarified that completion of 14 years in prison by itself would not entitle a convict to automatic release from the prison and the Sentence Review Board shall have the discretion to release a convict, at an appropriate time in all cases considering the circumstances in which the crime was committed and other relevant factors like

- a. whether the convict has lost his potential for committing crime considering his overall conduct in jail during the 14 year's incarceration;
- b. the possibility of reclaiming the convict as a useful member of the society; and
- c. Socio-economic condition of the convict's family.

Such Convicts as stand convicted of a capital offence are prescribed the total period of imprisonment to be undergone including remissions, subject to a minimum of 14 years of actual imprisonment before the convict prisoner is released. The total period of incarceration including remissions in such cases should ordinarily not exceed 20 years.

- 4.3 All other convicted male prisoners not covered by section 433A Cr.PC undergoing the sentence of life imprisonment would be entitled to be considered for premature release after they have served at least 14 years of imprisonment inclusive of remission but only after completion of 10 years actual imprisonment i.e. without remissions.
- 4.4 The female prisoners not covered by section 433A Cr.PC undergoing the sentence of life imprisonment would be entitled to be considered for premature release after they have served at least 10 years of imprisonment inclusive of remissions but only after completion of 7 years actual imprisonment i.e. without remissions.
- 4.5 Cases of premature release of persons undergoing life imprisonment before completion of 14 years of actual imprisonment on grounds of terminal illness or old age etc. can be dealt with under the provisions of Art. 161 of the Constitution of India.

5. Category of prisoners who are not eligible for Premature Release

- (i) Prisoners convicted of the offences such as rape, dacoity, terrorist crimes etc.
- (ii) Persons who are sentenced for life for a murder along with rape of child below 16 years of age charged with or without POCSO Act, 2012.
- (iii) Prisoners who have been convicted for organised murders in a premeditated matter and in an organised manner.
- (iv) Professional murderers who have been found guilty of murder by hiring them.
- (v) Convicts who commit murder while involved in smuggling operations or having committed the murder of public servants on duty.

6. Category of prisoners eligible only after completing 25 years of sentence including all kinds of remission.

6.1 Convicts who have been imprisoned for life for murder with rape, murder with dacoity, murder involving an offence under the Protection of Civil Rights Act 1955, murder for dowry, murder of a child below 14 years of age, multiple murder, murder committed after conviction while inside jail, murder during parole, murder in a terrorist incident, murder in smuggling operation. murder of a public servant on duty, murder with robbery and rape of a child below 14 years of age.

6.2 Gangsters, contract killers, smugglers, drug traffickers awarded life imprisonment for murders.

6.3 Convicts whose death sentence has been commuted to life imprisonment by the Hon'ble President of India or by the Hon'ble Governor.

The prisoners with the following age group and completed sentence and favorable reports from the Probation Officers are eligible under this category:-

(a) Prisoners who have attained the age of 55 and completed sentence of 25 years including remission ; OR

(b) Prisoners who have completed 23 years of actual sentence

7. Category of prisoners eligible after 20 years of sentence including remission

All prisoners who do not come under above said category 5 and 6 shall be eligible for premature release after 20 years of sentence including remission irrespective of their age, but on the following conditions.

7.1 The overall conduct inside the prison should indicate that the prisoner has lost his potential for committing crimes in future. (To be reported by the Superintendent of Jail concerned) .

7.2 There should have a possibility of reclaiming the convict as useful member of the society.(should be evident from the report of the Probation Officer)

7.3 Socio economic condition of the family should be sound enough to accommodate the prisoner. (should be evident from the report of the Probation Officer)

The prisoners with the following age group who have completed sentence and have favorable reports from the Probation Officers are eligible under this category:-

(a) Prisoners who have attained the age of 50 and completed sentence of 20 years including remission; OR

(b) Prisoners who have completed actual sentence of 20 years

8. Category of prisoners eligible after 14 years of actual sentence excluding remission.

All prisoners who have completed the age of 75 but do not come under the above said Category 4 shall be eligible for premature release after completing 14 years of actual sentence.

9. The procedure for processing the cases for consideration of the Sentences Review Board will be as under:-

(i) The Superintendent of Jail concerned who has prisoner undergoing sentence of imprisonment for life, shall initiate the case of the prisoner at least 3 months in advance of the date when the prisoner would become eligible for consideration of premature release as per the criteria laid down by the U.T of Lakshadweep Administration.

(ii) The Superintendent of Jail concerned shall prepare a comprehensive note in each case giving out the family and social background of the prisoner, the offence for which he was convicted and sentenced and the circumstances under which the offence was committed. The Superintendent of Jail concerned will also reflect fully about the conduct and behavior of the prisoner in the jail during the period of his incarceration, behavior / conduct during the period he was released on probation/leave change in his behavioral pattern and the jail offences, if any committed by him and punishment awarded to him for such offence(s). A report shall also be made about his physical, mental health or any serious ailment with which the prisoner is suffering entitling his case special consideration for his premature release. The note shall also contain recommendation of the Superintendent of jail concerned whether he favours for the premature release of the prisoner or not and in either case it shall be supported by adequate reasons.

(iii) The Superintendent of Jail concerned shall make reference to the Sub Divisional Police Officer (Station House Officer) of the district (Island) where the prisoner was ordinarily residing at the time of commission of the offence, for which he was convicted and sentenced or where he is likely to resettle after his release from the jail. However, in case the place where the prisoner was ordinarily residing at the time of commission of the offence is different from the place where he committed the offence, reference shall also be made to the Sub Divisional Police Officer of the district in which the offence was committed. In either case, he shall forward a copy of the note prepared by him to enable the Sub Divisional Police Officer to express his views in regard to the desirability of the premature release of the prisoner.

(iv) On receipt of the reference, the Sub Divisional Police Officer concerned shall cause an inquiry to be made in the matter through senior Police Officer of appropriate rank and based on his own assessment shall make his recommendations. While making the recommendations the Sub Divisional Police Officer shall not act mechanically and oppose the premature release of the prisoner on untenable and hypothetical ground apprehensions. In case the Sub Divisional Police Officer is not in favour of the premature release of the prisoner, he shall justify the same with cogent reasons and materials. He shall return the reference to the Superintendent of the Jail concerned not later than 30 days from the receipt of the reference.

(v) The Superintendent of Jail concerned shall also make reference to the Social Welfare Officer and shall forward to him a copy of his note. On receipt of the reference, the Social Welfare Officer shall either hold or cause to be held an inquiry through Social Welfare Officer in regard to the desirability of premature release of the prisoner having regard to his family and social background, his acceptability by his family members and the society, prospects of the prisoners for rehabilitation and leading a meaningful life as a good Citizen. He will not act mechanically and recommend each and every case for premature release. In either case he should justify his recommendation by reason/material. The Social Welfare Officer shall furnish his report/recommendations to the Superintendent of Jail concerned not later than 30 days from the receipt of the reference.

(vi) On receipt of the report/recommendations of the Sub Divisional Officer and Social Welfare Officer, the Superintendent of Jail concerned shall put up the case to the Inspector General of Prisons at least one month in advance of the proposed meeting of the Sentence Review Board. The Inspector General of Prisons shall examine the case bearing in mind the report/recommendations of the Superintendent of Jail concerned Sub Divisional Police Officer and the Social Welfare Officer and shall make his own recommendations with regard to the premature release of the prisoner or otherwise keeping in view the general or special guidelines laid down by the Government of the Union Territory of Lakshadweep. Regard shall also be had to various norms laid down and guidelines given by the Apex Court and various High Court in the matter of premature release of prisoners.
